Historical Sketch

THE IDEA OF ESTABLISHING a Theological College in the Farthest West of the Dominion had been under consideration for some years by the several Presbyteries of the Synod of British Columbia and Alberta. The earliest documentary statement relating to such an institution is to be found in a resolution passed by the Presbytery of Kamloops, February 22nd, 1906, setting forth the needs of the mission fields of the Synod, and the great expansion of Church work in the West, asking the General Assembly to consider the advisability of establishing an institution for the training of men for the Ministry in British Columbia. The Synod, meeting in May, transmitted this overture to Assembly. Along with this overture there were presented documents dealing with the same and kindred matters from the Presbyteries of Westminster, Victoria, and Calgary, which the Synod remitted to these several Presbyteries for further consideration.

The Committee reported, in 1907, that the time was opportune for the institution of a Theological College in British Columbia; that conditions in Mission Fields could be best served by a summer term; that fourteen young men within the Synod bounds had offered themselves as candidates for the ministry; that the Theological Committee of the Presbytery of Westminster had given assurances of financial support, and that Synod had expressed its conviction that the immediate establishment of such a College was necessary to the welfare of the Church in this Province.

Assembly adopted the report and agreed to establish a College at Vancouver, B. C., to begin work in April, 1908; appointed a Board of Management and a Senate, giving them jointly the power of nominating a Principal, commending the new venture to the loyalty and liberality of the congregations of the Synod, and authorized the Board to make temporary arrangement for the term of 1908. The first joint meeting of the Board and Senate was convened September 24th, 1907, by the Rev. A. J. MacGillivray, who was subsequently appointed permanent Chairman, and Rev. John A. Logan, Secretary, and initiated action for the selection of a Principal.

After a careful inquiry the Joint Board, at its meeting on January 14th, 1908, agreed to offer the Principalship to the Rev. John MacKay, D.D., of Crescent Street Church, Montreal, and on March 4th the Board was able to intimate his acceptance of the same. This nomination was heartily approved by the General Assembly in June at Winnipeg, and on July 10th Dr. MacKay was inducted into his office by the Presbytery of Westminster.

The College received its name "Westminster Hall" by a resolution of the joint board on May 1st, 1908.

The first Session was opened on April 4th, Rev. Prof. D. J. Fraser, D.D., of Montreal College, delivering the opening lecture, the classes meeting in McGill University College Building. On May 10th possession was taken of the present building, which had been amply furnished by the College Ladies' Auxiliary.

Principal MacKay announced that the Vipond family, of Montreal, had offered $300.00 to found 'The Frederick Cameron Vipond Library,' with the promise of an annual amount of $200. Also, that Mrs. Florence Archibald had signified her wish to donate the Library of her late husband (Rev. W. F. Archibald, Ph.D.) of 400 volumes to the College, and $5,000 in trust, to be known as "The Archibald Circulating Library," for the use of the students of the Hall and the Ministers of the Synod of British Columbia.

Mr. Alexander MacDougall and family, of Montreal, offered an annual scholarship of $100, to be known as "The James Sinclair MacDougall" scholarship.

During the first Session Principal MacKay was assisted by Rev. D. J. Fraser, D.D., Montreal, Professor of New Testament Literature and Exegesis; Rev. R. Magill, Ph.D.,

Principal of Pine Hill College, Halifax, Professor of Systematic Theology; Rev. Richard Davidson, Ph.D., Toronto University, Professor of Old Testament Literature and Exegesis; Rev. T. Wardlaw Taylor, Lecturer in Homiletics; Revs. J. A. Logan and M. P. Talling, Lecturers in Pastoral Theology; Rev. R. Campbell, D.D., Lecturer in Church Law and Procedure, and Rev. J. D. Gillam, in the English Bible.

In 1909 the Rev. Geo. C. Pidgeon, D.D., of West Toronto, was appointed by the General Assembly to the Chair of Practical Theology, and inducted by the Presbytery of Westminister on July 6th.

During the second term, in addition to the permanent staff, assistance was given by Revs. R. E. Welsh, D.D., and A. R. Gordon, D. Litt., of Montreal College; Revs. James Denney, D.D., and Geo. Adam Smith, D.D., Free Church College, Glasgow; and short courses by Dr. Campbell, Montreal; Principal King, of Indore; Rev. J. C. Robertson, Toronto, and several lectures by local clergymen.

In 1910 the staff was assisted by Prof. D. J. Fraser, of Montreal; Prof. E. A. Wicher, D.D., San Anselmo, California; Prof. W. G. Jordan, D.D., Kingston; Rev. W. R. Taylor, Ph.D., Toronto; and Rev. C. Anderson Scott, D.D., Cambridge.

In 1911 Rev. W. R. Taylor, Ph.D., was appointed to the Chair of Old Testament. The Faculty had the assistance of two British scholars, Prof. James Stalker, D.D., of Aberdeen, and Principal A. E. Garvie, D.D., of New College, London. The College building was enlarged to make room for the libraries, offices, class-rooms, dormitories, etc.

During the term of 1912 the College had as extra lecturers Profs. R. E. Welsh, D.D., of Montreal; J. Dick Fleming, D.D., of Manitoba College; A. R. MacEwen, D.D., of New College, Edinburgh, and Shailer Matthews, D.D., LL.D., of Chicago.

In 1913 the Faculty had assistance from Professors R. E. Welsh, D.D., of Montreal; C. G. Paterson, D.D., San Anselmo, California; and Prof. James Moffat, D.D., of Mansfield College, Oxford. Prof. W. R. Taylor resigned to accept the Chair of Semitic Languages in Toronto University.

In 1914 the College had outside the regular staff the Rev. A. S. Morton, B.D., of Halifax, and Prof. E. A. Wicher, D.D., San Anselmo. Rev. John T. McNeill, B.D., was appointed lecturer in Church History. Prof. Pidgeon, on receiving a call from Bloor Street Church, was transferred to Toronto.

In 1915 Principal Sharrard, of Indore College, India, was appointed lecturer in Old Testament. Additional lectures were given by Profs. H. A. Kent, M.A., of Halifax, and D. J. Fraser, D.D., of Montreal.

In 1916 Rev. W. R. Taylor, Ph.D., of the Department of Semitic Languages of Toronto University, and Rev. E. F. Scott, D.D., of Queen's Theological College, gave courses in Old and New Testament, respectively. In the Department of Practical Theology valued assistance was rendered by local ministers.

In September, 1918, Rev. John T. McNeill was granted leave of absence for one year, leaving the Principal as the only regular member of the Faculty, but that the work for the Session of 1919 will be up to the usual standard will be seen from the staff given on page 9.

Entrance to Theology

I. To enter Theology in Westminster Hall, students are required to present to the Registrar:—

- (a) A Presbyterial Certificate;
- (b) Evidence of having obtained the B.A. degree or of having taken at least three full years of the B. A. course of some recognized University, or the three years' special course prescribed by the General Assembly. Students are strongly urged to complete their studies for the B. A. degree before entering upon the study of Theology.

II. Special students may be admitted to any of the classes on application to the Registrar, with whom all arrangements as to terms, etc., may be made.

Theological Curriculum

The Theological Course extends over three sessions of six months each, from April to September, inclusive.

The work done is that prescribed by the regulations of the General Assembly, and permits a student to take any year of his course in Westminster Hall, and pass to any other college, without loss of time, after spending a year on the mission field.

No student may pass from a summer session in Westminster Hall direct to a winter session in some other Theological College, nor from a winter session in another College direct to a summer session in Westminster Hall, unless he has spent at least one continuous year on the mission field since the beginning of his course.

The following subjects are studied:—

First and Second Years

- I.—Systematic Theology.
- II.—Apologetics.
- III.—Practical Theology.
- IV.—Old Testament.
- V.—New Testament.
- VI.—English Bible.
- VII.—Church History.
- VIII.—Elocution.

Apologetics is omitted in the Third Year.

Systematic Theology

The course in Systematic Theology begins with a general survey of the whole field, having the work of Christ as its organizing principle. This is followed by a close study of the development of doctrine from the earliest Christian times up to the present, and the course is completed by the study of one great system of Doctrine, the Calvinistic, in the light of modern thought. For 1919 all the classes will study together "The Work of Christ."

Apologetics

Until the war is over and classes resume their normal size, the First and Second Years will study together. For 1919 the general theme will be "Modern Apologetic Problems."

Practical Theology

Practical Theology deals with the Church at work. The course in Church History shows what the Church has been in the past; the course in Practical Theology shows what the Church ought to be and to do in modern conditions.

The Department of Practical Theology consists of four related subjects: "The Relation of Christianity to Social Problems," "Homiletics," "Pastoral Theology," and "Christian Education."

In addition to the above mentioned general divisions of the subject, a number of lectures will be given in "Church Polity."

Old Testament

In the Department of English Bible the aim is to give the student an extensive knowledge of the teachings of the Old Testament. In this Department a more intensive study of representative portions of it is attempted, together with the exposition of particular phases of Old Testament thought and religion. In this way the student is made familiar with the form and substance of the literature and with the exegetical interpretation of it. The object of the course is to show the value of the Old Testament for the ministry and to teach the student how to use its material with efficiency.

Junior Class

- I.—Davidson's Hebrew Grammar — McFadyen's Edition, pp. 1-112.
- II.—Readings from Genesis and Psalms.
- III.—Introduction to Old Testament.

Senior Class

- I.—Selections from the Historical Literature.
- II.—The Religion of the Hebrews—a lecture course.
- III.—Introduction to Old Testament.

New Testament

This course will cover the following subjects:—

- I.—Introduction to New Testament literature.
- II.—A careful study of the language of the New Testament.
- III.—A consideration of the problems of the different books studied and of the spiritual truths they contain. The aim is to enable the student to combine scientific accuracy with spiritual insight in his interpretation of Scripture.

The course in 1919, in which all of the classes will study together, will be “Hebrews and the General Epistles.”

English Bible

The object of this Course is to cover the whole English Bible in three years. It seeks to combine range with accuracy. It aims to give a comprehensive view of the great messages of the Old and New Testaments, with their historical background, and to relate them to our own times. This will help the student to master the Bible as a whole, and familiarize him with the wealth of material for the preacher which it contains.

The Course on the Old Testament falls naturally into three divisions:—

- I.—Historical Literature.
- II.—Prophetic Literature.
- III.—Reflective Literature, including the Wisdom Books,
Psalms, and Job.

Similarly the New Testament will be studied in three sections:—

- I.—The Acts of the Apostles and the Pauline Epistles.
- II.—The Life of Christ.
- III.—Hebrews, the General Epistles, and the Apocalypse.

A section of the Old Testament and a section of the New will be taken up each year, all the classes studying together.

The course for 1919 will be as follows:—

- I.—Old Testament: “The Historical Literature.”
- II.—New Testament: Hebrews, the General Epistles, and the Apocalypse.

Church History

The Course in Church History is intended to give the student a sympathetic insight into the great movements of the past within the Christian Church, while at the same time enabling him to know as much as possible about the social and political conditions amid which, at every stage in its history, the Church has had its setting. In addition to the lectures, students read, under the guidance of the professor, selections from literature relating to each of the periods dealt with. The lectures in 1919 will be on the Reformation.

Degrees in Divinity

Degree of Bachelor of Divinity

The Course for the Degree of Bachelor of Divinity consists of two parts. Graduates of Westminster Hall who hold a B.A. degree and take an average of 75 per cent. in all the subjects of the Third Year, may proceed the following year to the Final Department of the course.

This Department will consist of a Major Subject, in which the most thorough knowledge will be required, and two Minor Subjects, each of which will cover a more limited field with equal thoroughness.

If the Major chosen be not an Old Testament or New Testament subject, at least one Minor must belong to either of these departments.

A thesis showing complete mastery of the Major Course, and an examination on the Major and two Minors, in which 66 per cent. of the total marks must be taken, will be required for the degree.

Graduates of other colleges who hold the B.A. degree and produce evidence of having taken 75 per cent. of the total marks in their last year, may proceed to the Final Department without further examination.

Others will be required to pass an examination on the subjects of the Third Year and obtain the requisite percentage thereon.

Students of Westminster Hall may take the B.D. in Course, but in order to do so must take the Major Subject and three Minors, one of which may be in the same field as the Major.

Reading Courses will be set by the Professor in each subject in lieu of attendance on lectures.

Detailed Courses will be sent on application to the Registrar.

Degree of Doctor of Divinity

By the terms of its charter Westminster Hall is empowered to grant the Degree of D.D. honoris causa.

General Proficiency Scholarships

(Scholarships are awarded only when an average of 75 per cent. has been attained.)

Third Year

I.—The Student Memorial, No. 1.....	$50.00
II.—The McCormick	25.00

Second Year

I.—The James Sinclair Macdougall.....	$50.00
II.—The Student Memorial, No. 2.....	25.00

First Year

I.—The Leila Mackay	$25.00
II.—The Janet Walker	10.00

Arts Course

Students in Arts may reside in the Hall and take their course at the University of British Columbia without extra charge. The Calendar of the University will be sent on application to the Registrar, Vancouver, or to the Registrar of Westminster Hall.

Mission Work

In the winter months students may engage in Mission Work under the supervision of the Presbyteries of the Church. Students in Divinity are expected to do this work as a part of their training. In this way they gain the experience and practical knowledge needed to fit them for the duties of the pastorate. Students may do a limited amount of work of this kind in the numerous fields near Vancouver during the summer session.

Fees

All the courses in Westminster Hall, as in each of the other Theological Colleges, are free. Students taking examinations or lectures at the University of British Columbia pay the regular fees of that institution.

Rooms and Board

Westminster Hall has well furnished rooms, and is comfortable and home-like. For students in Theology, or those preparing to enter Theology, the charge is $5.00 per week for board and room.

Libraries

I. — THE FREDERICK CAMERON VIPOND MEMORIAL LIBRARY, the gift of the T. S. Vipond family of Montreal, contains a splendid selection of the most up-to-date works of reference, and $1,000 worth of books is being added yearly.

II.—THE F. W. ARCHIBALD MEMORIAL LIBRARY has been provided for the use of ministers through the kindness of the late Mrs. F. W. Archibald, of Toronto. This consists of the library of the late Dr. F. W. Archibald and a large number of new books.

Books from both Libraries will be mailed to any part of the constituency of the College, the only expense to the recipient being the return postage. A catalogue has been prepared and will be forwarded on application.

Every facility will be afforded for profiting by this collection of standard books. For information, address The Librarian, Rev. J. A. Logan, D.D.

Correspondence Courses

Correspondence Courses in recent Theological Literature for the use of ministers are arranged, and the Professors will be glad to be of service in any way possible to ministers within the constituency of Westminster Hall, on request.

For Sunday Schools and Young People's Societies

The best books on Sunday School and Young People's work are being added to the Archibald Library, and workers in these departments are welcome to any assistance which the College can give them.

The Students, Faculty, and Friends of Westminster Hall, in convocation assembled, desire to send warmest greetings to the boys overseas; to assure them of our continued interest in all that concerns them; to pledge them our hearty support in the cause for which they stand, and our earnest prayers for their well-being and for a speedy peace founded on righteousness.

Furthermore, we wish to assure them that we will do all in our power to so support the Church and the College that on their return they may find the nation prepared for that larger future which their heroism is helping to win for the world.

While we rejoice in the heroism and devotion to duty of those who have fallen, we mourn the loss which their sacrifice has meant to the College, to the Church, and to the Nation, and we extend our deepest sympathy to all dear to them.
